

Northwest Georgia Emmaus Team Covenant

As a member of the team for Northwest Georgia # _____ I
_____, I hereby covenant:

- To surrender my "self" to the power of Christ at work in me; to live my life as one with Christ;
- To so order my life that the love of Christ will be visible to the other team members and the participants.
- To follow the example of Christ and adopt a leadership style of servanthood and humility
- To pray daily for the members of the team, the community and the participants named and unnamed.
- To be willing to listen and learn from my peers and from Christ.
- If assigned in the conference room, attend all team meetings. Notify the L/D if unable to attend any of scheduled team meetings.
- To set aside the proper amount of time to prepare for my assignments and responsibilities.
- To be ever mindful that this event is not for me, but for the participants, and that my role is to serve and my position is no more important than any other

In addition, in agreeing to work Northwest Georgia # _____, I promise to follow the house rules at King's Retreat and those of the Northwest Georgia Board of Directors as stated below:

1. I agree to support the NW GA Board, and the Upper Room's Model
2. I agree to pay team fees of $125.00 or forward a scholarship request to the NW GA Board Treasurer no later than the last team meeting before the walk.
3. I will follow all of the King's Retreat Rules
4. I will keep my cell phone and watch out of site from pilgrims to prevent distractions.

I understand that if I break any house rules or any of those listed above, I will be subject to discipline by the Northwest Georgia Board of Directors. My punishment will be one or both of the following:

1. Dismissal from the team for the remainder of the weekend without refund of team fees.
2. Restrictions on working future teams.
